To the AdvertiserHuerta will fight it out to the end.
Negotiations with the United States which aim to push him from office are at an end. In fact, diplomatic relations have been practically broken off. This ominous statement was made by an official of the Mexican government yesterday. In explaining that part of his statement as to breaking off of diplomatic relations he said Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy can approach no members of the cabinet freely. When Envoy Lind left Mexico City only Minister of the Interior Adalpe showed any cordiality to O'Shaughnessy. O'Shaughnessy's personal property is all packed up and he is ready to leave for Vera Cruz at a moment's notice.News reports have been received in the City of Mexico of the assassination of Ricon Gallardo, husband of former Luz Diaz, daughter of Porfirio Diaz.One thousand five hundred Americans in the City of Mexico are in danger of having their means of escape cut off, according to state department advises.Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy has informed Secretary Bryan that Huerta has threatened to destroy railroad communication between the City of Mexico and Vera Cruz.All the big textile mills in the Lawrence, Mass., district, employing about thirty thousand persons, were tied up yesterday by a strike of 300 firemen.A challenge to a public debate on the fairness and attitude of the United States toward Mexico is the subject of an advertisement inserted in a Washington paper by Major Cassius E.
Gillette, a former army officer. He is willing to argue that Huerta is either an assassin or a traitor.Orders were issued yesterday by Admiral Paul von Hintze, the German ambassador to Mexico, for the German cruiser Nurnburg now on the Pacific coast to proceed at once to San Blas, a seaport in the state of Tepec.The sum of $4,350,000 was given to Cornell Medical College of New York last Friday, according to an announcement yesterday by President Schur-man.Cardinals Gibbons and Farley have indorsed the movement for the observance of the National Tuberculosis Day.The British government has decided to seek a compromise with the opposition leaders in parliament on the Home Rule Bill, according to the Times. Premier Asquith, it says, within a week will make an offer of a clause suspending the operation of the bill in Ulster for a definite term of years and will propose to place an additional burden on British taxpayers in order to compensate the Nationalists of Ireland for the temporary loss of the wealth of Ulster."No man alive is worth over $25-000 a year for the ability he brings into a position or an office," said Professor W. S. Ripley, head of Harvard's economic department yesterday.Phlander C. Knox let it become known through friends today that he has no idea of raising to the bait of the Progressive Republicans and becoming their candidate for governor of Pennsylvania.Police throughout the continent began working yesterday on the mystery of a $65,000 robbery. Gold ingots valued at $65,000 consigned by the Ottoman Bank in Constantinople to Paris by way of Berlin, disappeared in transit.The employers of the United Kingdom are forming a new union and propose to raise a guarantee fund of $250,000,000 in order to protect themselves against strike movements by the trade unions and other labor organizations.A special inspection train bearing William J. Jackson, president of the Chicago and Eastern Railroad and a party of officials and directors of the road, was derailed yesterday while running at a high rate of speed around a curve just north of Newport, near Danville, Ill.Counsel for Harry Taw yesterday filed an amended petition for a writ of habeas corpus with Burns P. Hodgman, clerk of the federal court, and immediately afterwards began work on a long legal brief amplifying the petition.Former Governor Sulzer will start on his lecture tour Saturday night.
The topic of the lectures will be about "The Treason of Tammany."Representative Reilly of Connecticut yesterday introduced a resolution in the house ordering an investigation of the United Cigars Company to decide whether the concern is operating in restraint of trade and if it is a monopoly.The "Blood Ritual" myth is being sedulously kept alive in St. Peter-burg, the latest effort being a subscription now being raised by the Nov. 6 Vremya for a memorial to the murderer Yushinsky boy.Uneasy rests the head that wears an ache—in fact, it doesn't rest at all.
How strange it is that people will try to bear the pain of a headache when they might easily get relief by taking one tasteless dose of Stearns' Headache Cure. It always cures headaches. Insist on "Stearns'" advertisement.Strausz, Jr. and Infant, A. M. Wiley,
